

CITY OF THOMASTON

Office: 706-647-6633

Press Release:

Warning notices will be issued in reference to abandoned vehicles on private property causing a nuisance. Property owners and citizens are complaining of the nuisance. City of Thomaston ordinances code sections explain that any vehicle (inoperative, no valid registration, no insurance) kept within the city (residential, commercial, agricultural, or industrial) must not create a nuisance. Only junkyards complying with the laws of this state are exempt. Owners will be given thirty days to remove vehicles with violations. Any person in violation after will be issued citations to appear in City of Thomaston Court.
