Attention City utility customers:

Effective immediately, the City of Thomaston will no longer grant payment extensions on utility bills. All customers will have until the last business day of the month to pay their current bill. The cut-off date for utilities for non-payment will be the first business day of the following month.

Effective immediately, the City's utility late fee will increase from $25.00 to $35.00. The late fee will be applied to the utility bill, if payment is not received by the 15th of the month.

Please contact the office of the City Manager, if you have questions or concerns.
